

Are you Tough Enough to Wear Pink?

August 29th, 2009

Saturday's PRCA Rodeo Performance Thunderbird Rodeo Arena

Kitsap County Fair & Stampede and its Supporters will help raise money and awareness for Breast Cancer. This year's Tough Enough to Wear Pink event will honor own local hometown resident, Wendy Peat, who is being affected by Breast Cancer.

Show your support by wearing pink during the Rodeo Performance. Tough Enough to Wear Pink merchandise will be sold nightly at the Rodeo event near the west end of the Rodeo Arena.

Purchase raffle tickets to win the following items:

- Pink Justin Cowboy Boots, donated by Justin Boots
- 50 Year Anniversary National Rodeo Finals Quilt, donated by Coleta Corey
- Western Jewelry, donated by Pat Peat
- Silver Tough Enough to Wear Pink Belt Buckle, donated by Linda Foutch
- Quilt, donated by Linda Moran
- Tough Enough to Wear Pink Quilt, donated by Sherry McDonald from Pollock Pine, California
- Tough Enough to Wear Pink Bracelet, donated by Nina Halverson
- Quilt, donated by Karen Jennings
